KNICKERBOCKER YACHT CLUB COLLECTION

INTRODUCTION:

The Knickerbocker Yacht Club was founded in 1874 on the Harlem River to encourage “yachting and the cultivation of naval science and seamanship.” Claimed to be the second-oldest yacht club on the Long Island Sound, it migrated from its original Manhattan location to Port Morris in the Bronx, then to College Point in Queens and in 1907, set up a club station in Port Washington. Later on, a clubhouse was built in 1921, on Main Street. Some firsts of the yacht club include admission of Jewish members at a time when not the common practice, the concept of winter "frostbite racing" in the 1930's, and establishment in 1982 of the Knickerbocker Cup yacht race that attracted top sailors from around the world. Though most members' boats were modest, with owners operating as one-person crews, there were 10-foot dinghies along with 200-foot yachts. Reaching its peak in the 1980s, the club had approximately 290 families with 165 boats. On January 20, 2009, after a 135 year history, the club was dissolved.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

The Knickerbocker Yacht Club Collection spans the years 1878-2009 and includes primarily the club’s early history. Bound volumes contain ledgers with account information, meeting minutes, details of events with newspaper clippings, and 1897 data about Knickerbocker Yacht Club yachts. The collection also contains books with information about the club’s history, constitution and bylaws, and photographs. Artifacts include racing trophies, menus, pennants, scarves, mugs, and models.

ORGANIZATION:

The collection is arranged into three series:

- SERIES I: Administrative Files
- SERIES II: Photographs and Miscellaneous
- SERIES III: Artifacts and Memorabilia
