BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

This collection focuses on Port Washington resident, Marian McPartland (1918-2013), a world-renowned jazz musician, pianist, composer, and author who lived on Derby Road. Originally from England, in 1970 McPartland founded Halcyon Records, a recording company that produced records for ten years. Her National Public Radio (NPR) series Piano Jazz won numerous awards and included several famous guests such as Tony Bennett and Rosemary Clooney. In 1987, she wrote All in Good Time, a collection of portraits of colleagues. In 2004, she was given a Grammy for lifetime achievement.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

The collection (ca. 1940-2000) consists of photographs, mostly promotional, her book, All in Good Time, calendars, programs, posters, event invitations, and other paper ephemera, CDs, LPs, and awards.
